Immigration Bill Seeks to Shut
Them Out.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 6.—The immigration bill, which was brought up in the Senate last Wednesday and only briefly discussed, has provoked a lively fight, which has not yet appeared under the surface but which is of vital importance to several interests all the way across the country from Maine and New England to Hawaii. The bill, as it passed the House last winter, providing for a modification of the immigration laws, was loaded down with a little amendment, providing for an educational test, by which all immigrants coming into this country must be able to read at least twenty words of the Constitution of the United States in their own language in type, known as double small pica.

As there is no such kind of type in the Japanese language, the House bill, should it become law in that form, would shut out the Japanese and also the Russians.
The entrance of Japanese laborers into states on the Pacific coast would be stopped, although Japanese are immensely popular as laborers in those parts. It would also shut out the entrance of Japanese into Hawaii. The clause, which has proved so objectionable, was a part of an amendment which Senator Lodge of Massachusetts has kept before Congress for some years, although he took no especial pains to perfect it because there seemed no immediate prospect of the matter coming up for consideration. It was tacked upon the Shattuc immigration bill in the House on motion of Mr. Underwood, of Alabama.

Mr. William Haywood, of Honolulu, has been at work industriously for the last week, seeking to overcome that objectionable part of the bill, as far as it pertains to Hawaii.
The friends of Hawaii in the Senate have been helping him. The large steamship companies on the Atlantic have hurried their officials to Washington to aid in making the protest.
The Russian Embassy and the Japanese legation have also been awake to the situation. An amendment to meet that situation has been prepared by the attorney of the Japanese legation and introduced by Senator Fairbanks, of Indiana, providing that the words from the Constitution to be used in the educational test may be printed also "in correspondingly distinct type or characters in the case of languages which cannot be printed in Roman type."

There will be hearing within a few days before the immigration committee of the Senate, at which Mr. Haywood and others will appear, to protest against the objectionable features of the bill. It may come to the point where the opposition in the Senate will strive to load the bill down with objectionable amendments for the purpose of killing it and of preventing it from becoming a law at this session of Congress. Hawaii is not particularly interested in the paragraph, enacted by the House, to allow immigrants from Canada, Mexico and Cuba to come in without the educational test but Mr. Haywood is working in common with the railroad and steamship agents of the Atlantic seaboard to prevent the adoption of that clause in the Senate. The clause was put in by the House largely to help carry the bill through the Senate. It is of special interest to New England, beginning with Maine and extending through nearly all the New England states, because it permits the French Canadians to enter the United States, either by wagon conveyance or by the railroads, work for a few months, as they may be needed, and then hasten back to their homes. The provision for Mexico permits the cattlemen to import the greasers from across the border to help in caring for the stock, as they may be needed.

Begins Contest For Office.

San Jose, Dec. 4.—This afternoon L. J. Chipman, defeated Republican candidate for County Superintendent of Schools, commenced a contest in the Superior Court to gain possession of the office. He alleged that D. T. Bateman, Democratic candidate, who won by 185 votes, was illegally elected, misconduct of election officers being alleged.

MICHIGAN BEET SUGAR.

Want Votes Against Any Treaty Making Concessions to Cuba.

Washington, Dec. 4.—The Michigan beet sugar interests are anxious to enlist the support of their new Senator, General Alger, in the anti-reciprocity fight. The Beet Sugar Association of that state has requested him to vote against any treaty with Cuba which reduces the tariff on sugar. The association has also requested every stockholder in Michigan's beet sugar factories to write to General Alger, and the letters are beginning to reach him. He replied that he would not commit himself until he had seen what the treaty contained.
The Michigan delegation, with the possible exception of William Allen Smith, is solid against reciprocity.

W. L. Churchill, former president of the Michigan Beet Sugar Association, is in the city. He announced that a contract was closed in New York yesterday for the construction of a $650,000 factory at Tawai, Mich., which a capacity of 600 tons of beets a day. H. O.
Havemeyer, head of the sugar trust, subscribed for $250,000 of the stock.
Havemeyer is interested in other beet sugar factories in Michigan.

BARRETT SUCCEEDS BUCK.

Will Be Appointed if Mikado Will Accept Him.

Washington, Dec. 10.—At the State Department it is stated that Minister Takahira of Japan was expressly asked if his Government would object to John Barrett if he were appointed Minister and that Takahira replied that the Government would receive Barrett cordially.
If Barrett accepts the appointment, it is practically certain that the President will stick to his original purpose and appoint him. Senator Bard said tonight he would see the President in the interest of Dr.
Rowell of Fresno, if Barrett is not appointed.

The Transport War.

Washington, Dec. 6.—"I will blow those San Francisco steamer lines out of the water," said Jim Hill yesterday, just before his departure for Chicago. "I don't believe he will," said Paul Morton, vice-president of the Santa Fe, when told today of Hill's boast. If Hill wins the Government business away from San Francisco it will be after the biggest fight of his life.
The contest has broadened and drawn in the Harriman and Santa Fe interests, so that Hill will find that he is not fighting the San Francisco merchants alone. Hill, on the other hand, has not been idle, and has interested in his fight many powerful men.

TO PREVENT CROUP, begin in time. The first symptom is hoarseness; this is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has heard it.
The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse. If Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is freely given, all tendency to croup will soon disappear. Even after the croupy cough has developed, it will prevent the attack. There is no danger in giving this remedy as it contains nothing injurious. It always cures and cures quickly. The Hilo Drug Store sells it.
